

Seminar Description

The focus of this seminar is what needs to be recorded, the standards for recording, the future of recording (e-recordings) and the storage of data, and will it be accessible in the future.

About The Speakers

Kathi L. Guay, CPO, Register of Deeds, Merrimack County. Kathi is nationally certified in Land Records Administration and Records Management. She is Past President of the NH Register of Deeds Association, 1992-2002, Legislative co-chair of the NH Register of Deeds Association, current President of the National Association of County Recorders, Election Officials and Clerks (NACRC), and is a current board member of the Property Records Industry Association (PRIA) and co-chair of the Business Process and Procedures committee.

Paul G. Sanderson, Esq. of Concord, NH has been a staff attorney for the Local Government Center since 2004. He was a Hearings Examiner for the NH Department of Transportation from 1998-2004, being responsible for adjudication of all permit appeals, and creation of all policy documentation and administrative rules for the department. Presently, a selectman in the Town of Greenland, he has served on the Greenland NH Planning Board and Zoning Board of Adjustment. He has been admitted to practice as an attorney in NH and ME since 1978, and while in practice, he represented developers in both states, and closed numerous real estate transactions for both commercial and residential properties.

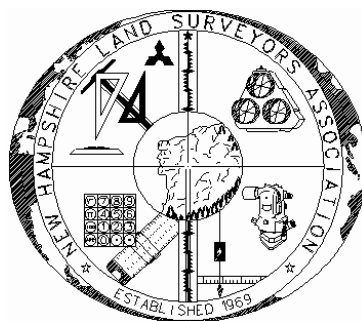

Carol Ogilvie is the Director of the Office of Community Development for the Town of Peterborough. Carol is a native of the Monadnock Region. She is a graduate of Keene State College and earned her Master's Degree from Kent State University in 1979. Ms. Ogilvie has more than 20 years of land use planning experience in the State of NH; 14 of them spent with the Southwest Region Planning Commission providing planning and zoning assistance to member towns. She has been employed by the Town of Peterborough as the Director of the Office of Community Development since 2003. Ms. Ogilvie lives in Gilsum with her husband Mike and Red the Cat.

Representative from Connor and Connor—TBD.
